"Absolutely the BEST experience ever! Everyone raved about the food at the party and the gluten free cake was delicious! I have since passed on their information to several friends with catering needs in the near future. If you are looking for a catering group for any event look no further. Al and his team are the best!"

"5 Stars!! Pacific Northwest Catering provided food and dessert for our wedding March 28th, 2015. From the very beginning we were very impressed with how well Al stayed in communication with us. Especially for people getting married, it is usually a person's first go-round with a caterer. We did not always know the right questions to ask, but PNC walked us through everything. They were very flexible with the menu and options, even allowing us to add in Mac and Cheese, which was a huge hit at the wedding. When it came to the food- Rave worthy. I have had so many compliments on our BBQ theme. We had the pulled pork and chicken, baked potato salad, broccoli salad, and of course the mac and cheese for dinner. Everything was divine! We also had a mixture of mini and whole round pies for dessert. We offered Key Lime, A delicious crumbly apple, lemon meringue, and berry. All tasted amazing and were displayed beautifully. If I ever have another major event I need catering for, I will definitely reach out to Al and PNC. Thanks guys!!"

"I hired Pacific NW Catering to cater a lunch for a benefit luncheon. From the beginning, he was prompt with returning phone calls and following up with me on all the details about the luncheon. He was experienced with knowing what would work well and kept the pricing within our budget. We served a plated lunch which received many compliments - it was plated nicely and was very tasty. He and his assistants were on time and had everything set up quickly and took care of all the clean-up. Thank you!"

"I don't even know where to begin. Al and his team were on top of everything! Every time I sent Al an email about any questions there was a response not even an hour later. When my mom and I went to sample the meal we instantly fell in love! Everyone was so so kind and quick and alert and the food was incredible!! We got so many compliments on our choice of catering. Everyone loved it!! Thank you Al and all of your team. You really helped make our wedding incredible!! "

"Pacific Northwest Catering did a phenomenal job! Al met me a couple weeks ahead of time at the event location and gave me advice on what we would need to make the party a success. He directed me on the number of table, linens, glasses, etc. to order. He planned the menu and even gave me tips on amounts to order based on type of party and number of guests. His employees were incredibly helpful and did a beautiful job on setup and execution! As soon as Al got to the event on day of (he could tell I was a bit stressed) I knew I had nothing more to worry about. Then there was the food - AMAZING!!! We were complimented by multiple guests on how wonderful the food and how impressed they were with the service. I would highly recommend Pacific Northwest Catering for any event!"

"Absolutely trouble and stress free...and the food and presentation was flawless From our first meeting with Al Starkenburg until he greeted me as I walked into the venue Al made me feel as though everything was perfectly under control and that all my wife and I had to concern ourselves with was enjoying our daughter's wedding reception. I can't express how much that meant to us as there are so many details and last minute surprises that occur as the "Day " approaches...Al and his crew were always one step ahead of everything that can create a bump in the road on that "Day"...Thank you Al!! See you at our next daughter's reception!!"

"We had an all-company Summer Picnic at the Lake Home of our boss. Working with Al to organize the event was great - he was easy to work with and very helpful. The Chef and his assistant that came to work the event were excellent - efficient and extremely pleasant. The food was delicious - top notch, and the party supplies were very nice. Having the rentals come as part of the package was extremely convenient.

We were extremely happy with everything, great party, great food and great service other than that one problem. I would definitely recommend them!"
